Tell us about yourself:

1. Why do you want to foster? _____

2. What do you think are the most important responsibilities in owning a dog? _____

3. RescuedMe's goal is to help rehabilitate dogs that are endangered of being euthanized because of either medical or behavioral issues. What are your strengths and weaknesses when it comes to rehabilitating an animal? Do you have any dog training or medical experience? _____

4. Foster families are groups of special individuals. They love and care for an animal until it finds its 'forever' home. An intense commitment and emotional roller coaster, how have you prepared yourself and your family for this experience? _____

5. We understand families with children often want to foster dogs to teach their children responsible pet ownership and help give back to their community. Many times the children are expected to help care for the animal. Describe your family situation. Who will be the primary caregiver and who will be the back up? If there are children, what are their ages and what are your expectations of the children in regards to the care of the animal? What happens to the animal if these expectations are not met? _____

6. Have you ever nursed a sick animal? Are you able to administer meds or shots? Do you have a safe, quiet space for the foster dog to rest while he recuperates?

7. Describe those pets you currently own or have own in the past 10 years: (If more space is needed, please use additional paper and attach to this form)

10. If medically appropriate, what exercise are you planning for your foster dog?

11. What does your average day look like? Do you have responsibilities other than work? What provisions have been made for your pet care during your time away from home?

12. Are you willing to feed the food our rescue recommends and/or provides?

13. Do you understand that fostering is not the same as adopting? If you chose to adopt your foster, do you agree to pay the adoption donation?

14. Do you understand and agree that if your foster does any damage to your person or any other person or your property the rescue group is indemnified from any costs associated with the damage?

15. Do you understand and agree that if you decide to incur any expenses without written approval from an officer of the rescue those expenses may not be reimbursable?
